Special Activities This Week: Building Art: Architecture

We will be looking also look at architectural plans, various building tools and materials and then discuss how they are used in home building. We will also look at a Roman arch and a geodesic dome to see what holds these unique shapes in place.

Monday—Cooking Project— edible buildings. With cream cheese as mortar and veggies as planks and bricks, we will be building our snacks.

Tuesday—Music and Building—We will incorporate several songs and finger plays into our circle times this week including Johnny Hammers with One Hammer, This is the Way We Hammer, and If I had a Hammer . We will also begin our building projects today.

Wednesday through Friday—We will read The House that Jack Built as well as many non-fiction juvenile books about architecture and building.

Looking Ahead to Next Week:

Australia—We'll start with the Sydney Opera House and then expand our discussions to include the biology and geography of the Australian outback.

Camp Routines to Remember: Daily Needs

TOWELS

Be sure that there is a bath-sized towel, bathing suit, change of clothes and water shoes available for your child. Children should also have shoes appropriate for active play every day. There are no flip flops and no crocs at school. Please send sunscreen in at the beginning of your camp session. Any remainder will be returned to you on your child's last day. Each day, please apply sunscreen before your child comes to camp and we will re-apply as necessary throughout the day. Be sure to let staff know if your child arrives without sunscreen. Snacks will be provided by the school. Campers will be making a special snack each week as well. Children staying the full day should bring lunch from home. Half day and full day children arrive and dismiss using the drive up process. Camp with Care and 12-month families use the walk-in process for signing their children in and out every day. If you have any last minute camp needs, please just call the office and let us know, or send in a note with your needs. Additional fees will be due on Monday of that week.
